Article 13 Section 1 is supplemented with the following sentence in italics, and reads:

1. Registration to participate in a written examination is compulsory and is done by entering the requested data into Osiris no later than 14 calendar days before the examination. Students receive examination tickets by email as confirmation of their registration. Contrary to the first sentence, for an written examination, a registration period of no later than 6 calendar days before the examination date applies.

Article 13 is supplemented with Sections 6 and 7, which read as follows:

6. Sections 2 and 4 of this article do not apply to a written examination administered online remotely from the university.
7. If unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example as a result of COVID-19, necessitate a change in the form or manner of taking the examination, the original registration period will remain in full force, unless the Dean decides on a different registration period for the benefit of the student.

Article 14 - Registration for other examinations FSC right of approval; BoS advisory powers

Article 14 Section 1 is supplemented with the sentence in italics below, and reads:

1. Registration for participation in an examination other than a written examination is compulsory, and it is done in the manner and within the term that is stated in the study guide for the relevant examination. If, due to unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example as a result of COVID-19, the form or manner of taking the examination changes, what is stated in the study guide will apply in full, unless the Dean decides to deviate from the manner or term for registration prescribed in the study guide.

Article 16 - Form of the examinations and the manner of testing in general (Art. 7.13 Section 2, Subsections h and I WHW) FSC right of approval, BoS advisory powers

Article 16 Section 1 is supplemented with the sentences in italics below, and reads:

1. Examinations (oral, written or otherwise) are taken in the manner described in the appendix. Unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example resulting from COVID-19, may require deviation from the prescribed form. If an examination is administered using online proctoring, this must take place in accordance with the TU Delft Online Proctored Examination Regulation.

Article 18 - Oral examinations (Art. 7.13 Section 2, Subsection n WHW)
FSC right of approval, BoS advisory powers

Article 18 Section 3 is supplemented with the sentence in italics below, and reads:

Article 27 – (Negative) binding recommendation on the continuation of studies

Article 27 is supplemented with Section 10. This reads as follows:

10. Students who obtained fewer than 45 credits in their first year of the degree programme in the 2019-2020 academic year and for whom the binding recommendation on the continuation of studies has been automatically postponed as a result of the amended regulation for the binding recommendation on the continuation of studies for the 2019-2020 academic year in the context of COVID-19, must have obtained all remaining credits from the first year of the degree programme in the subsequent academic year. Students who have not obtained all remaining credits by the end of the subsequent academic year will receive a final negative binding recommendation on the continuation of studies.

Article 29 - Amendments to the regulations

A fourth Section is added to Article 29. This reads as follows:

4. As a result of unforeseen circumstances or measures, for example as a result of COVID-19, the Dean may decide to deviate from these regulations, including the actual design of the education and any compulsory attendance requirements. This also means that it is possible to deviate from the provisions of the study guide.
